Santa Clarita Philharmonic Moves to the PAC

For the 2017-2018 season, the Santa Clarita Philharmonic will be moving to the Santa Clarita Performing Arts Center at the College of the Canyons to present two concerts. Mark your calendars for December 10, 2017 and June 3, 2018 to experience the only professional level symphony orchestra providing regularly scheduled concerts in the area. Program details will be posted in the near future.

Valencia BMW signs on as 2017-18 season sponsor

Music Director, Jeffrey Gilbert, tries his hand at conducting the BMW M6 convertible at Valencia BMW. The Santa Clarita Philharmonic is pleased to announce that Valencia BMW has made a generous donation to become the sponsor of our 2017-18 season.

Chuck Coia, General Manager of Valencia BMW presents a check to Dr. Mark Elfont, President of the Santa Clarita Philharmonic to become the principle sponsor of the orchestra's 2017-18 season. Mr. Coia said that he is pleased to support the arts in the local community.

Our 2017-2018 fund drive has started. Please consider making a donation so that we may continue bringing professional level classical music concerts to the community.

Mark Elfont, Ph.D.
President

Who We Are:

The Santa Clarita Philharmonic is a community-based, volunteer symphony orchestra comprised of professional, semi-professional, avocational, and student musicians from throughout the Santa Clarita Valley and surrounding areas.
