Santa Clarita Philharmonic 2018-2019 Season

Presented by

The Santa Clarita Philharmonic will present two free concerts for the 2018-2019 season at the Santa Clarita Performing Arts Center at the College of the Canyons.

Light Up the Holiday

Sunday, December 2, 2018, 3 p.m.

The Santa Clarita Philharmonic begins its sixth season with a lighter approach to the holidays. The first half of the concert will feature holiday selections that will put everyone in a joyous spirit and will feature vocalist Rachel Cole joining the orchestra for several original compositions. You will be thrilled by Rachel's beautiful voice and captivated by her engaging style. The second half of the concert will continue with holiday favorites, and the concert will conclude with a sing-a-long of the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah."

Youth and "Pops"

Sunday, March 3, 2019, 3 p.m.

For our winter concert, the Santa Clarita will present the winner of our 5th Student Concerto Competition. The contest is open to junior and senior high school students throughout the Santa Clarita area. The student selected will perform with the orchestra. Also on the program are selections from Broadway shows, Hollywood film scores, and other popular music.

Concerts will be performed at the

Santa Clarita Performing Arts Center at the College of the Canyons

26455 Rockwell Canyon Road, Santa Clarita, CA 91355

Concerts are free to the public

The Santa Clarita Philharmonic announces its fifth annual Student Concerto Competition. The winner of the competition will perform with the orchestra at the March 3rd concert.
