

Donations

As a volunteer organization, the Santa Clarita Philharmonic relies on contributions from individuals and local businesses to cover expenses for rehearsal venues, insurance and the purchase of music, as well as to offer free classical music concerts to the public. We would also like to initiate an outreach program to allow us to provide musical instrument instruction to promising members of the group.

The Santa Clarita Philharmonic is a designated 501 (c) (3) organization by the Internal Revenue service and all contributions are tax deductible. All contributors will be recognized in programs to be provided at future concerts and on the website. Your contribution will enable the musicians of the Santa Clarita Valley a gratifying outlet for their talent as well as provide rewarding classical music experiences for the public. As a contributor, you will be informed of all future activities of the orchestra.
